Clara Bow's "True to the Navy," at Fox Plaza

Starting Thursday, July 3rd, the Fox Plaza theatre, Hawthorne, will present the feature picture, "True to the Navy" with the "IT" girl, Clara Bow. When the "IT" comes in, Clara's got a boy-friend in every port, but "There's Only One That Matters," sings Clara. And how she sings! You don't know Clara Bow until you hear her and see her in what is considered her very best picture, "True to the Navy."

"True to the Navy" and the surrounding program, including an excellent comedy, an act and a Fox Movietone news reel will be shown continuously on July 4th. On Independence Day the box office opens at 2:30 and the show commences at 3:00. In the evening the theatre will be beautifully illuminated on the outside with red and green lights and on the inside, across the entire proscenium arch, decorations appropriate to the Fourth of July will be played in color harmony. The American Legion, too, will have its fireworks display in front of the Plaza.

This Saturday will be the last time the Fox Plaza theatre will show a regular vaudeville performance, so it behooves those who enjoy the excellent Fanghony and Marco programs to come this Saturday. Remember this Saturday is the last regular vaudeville program at the Fox Plaza until Fall. The feature picture is entitled "Around the Corner." It is a laughiest with true-to-life characters with the famous stars of "The Cohens and Kellys."

Then for Sunday-Monday, comes the comical fellow with personality, Jack Oakie in "The Social Lion." This is Jack Oakie's first starring vehicle, and he puts it over in excellent fashion. The Revival for Monday, in addition to the Jack Oakie picture, "The Social Lion" is "Sadie Thompson" with Gloria Swanson. This taken from the famous stage play in which the late Jeanne Eagels won her greatest laurels, namely, "Rain." And now you will see Maurice Chevalier at his very best. He comes to the Fox Plaza on Tuesday and Wednesday in "The Big Pond." He's saved a big surprise for his love-lane-blythe comedy-romance "The Big Pond."

Director Claims Oddest Ambition In Whole World

The oddest ambition in the world once belonged to Leslie Pearce, "talkie" and stage director. He aspired to be omnipotent, just for a few minutes. He wanted to make an ideal "talkie" actor.

His plan was to take qualities from several men and combine them into one.

Since making "The Fall Guy," Radio Pictures' comedy-drama will play Sunday only, July 6, at the Fox Redondo theatre, Pearce has given up his ambition. "It will not be necessary," he declares, "Jack Mulhall, who plays the lead, and this is the truth, fulfills every one of my requirements."

"Golden Dawn" Is Full of Jungle Sound and Color

All the riot of mad color and mysterious sound of the African jungle has been captured by Vitaphone in the Technicolor version of "Golden Dawn." Warner Brothers feature picture, which comes to the Torrance theatre, July 3, 8 and 10.

For the first time a highly successful stage operetta with a cast that no stage production could afford to offer, has been transferred to the screen in full color and musical accompaniment. The great advantages of the camera over the theatre have been used to give additional dramatic force and spectacular grandeur to the original production.

"Golden Dawn," which is the story of a white girl held captive in savage Africa, was admirably suited for adaptation. Walter Woolf, famous New York stage star, heads a cast that includes Vivienne Segal, Noah Berry, Alice Gertrude Loring, Marion Byron, Lee Moran, Nigel de Bruiler, Otto Matteson, Dick Henderson, Nina Quintero, Sojin, Julian Johnston, Nick de Ruiz and Edward Martindale.

JUSTICE PATTERSON WEDS LOS ANGELES COUPLE
LOMITA—Miss Blossom Vorhis and Alvin Simms, both of Los Angeles, were married Saturday afternoon by Justice of the Peace R. D. Patterson, at his home on Weston street.

Jack Oakie Gives Advice To Stars

"A film star should keep his feet on the ground and his money in the bank." Thus Jack Oakie, Paramount's sensational wizard of wise-crackery, first time in a fall, says the metaphorical Jack. "I may be here today and gone tomorrow. My idea is to work hard, save my money and not get all buttered and sugared with the idea that I am the high hooper-dooper of the wit and wagmen."

Tibbett's Talkie Debut Is Big Hit

Song and color, high adventure and romance, are all blended into the first motion picture starring a famous opera singer. Lawrence

LAWRENCE TIBBETT and CATHERINE DILL OWEN in "THE ROGUE SONG"

Tibbett, world's greatest operatic baritone, bids fair also to become one of the world's greatest movie stars, as a result of "The Rogue Song." Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's musical drama will play for three days, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 7, 8 and 9, at the Fox Redondo theatre.

Buster Collier in Sire's Footsteps

Sons of famous fathers seldom follow successfully in the steps of their parent.

But William Collier, Jr., who has a featured role in "The New Movie-tone Follies of 1930," coming to the Fox Redondo theatre next Thursday, July 10, for one day only, is a brilliant exception to this rule.

Church Groups to Hold Open Air Meet

The Women's Council, Missionary Society, and Junior Society of the First Christian church will hold a joint meeting Wednesday, July 3, at 8:00 p.m., at the church, 1000 S. Main street. The meeting will consist of a prayer service, a pot luck luncheon will be served at noon.

MRS. MILBURN TAKES VACATION AT SCHOOL

Mrs. J. H. Milburn and Miss Doris Wood returned last Friday from a vacation passed at the Episcopal summer school held at the Harvard school in Los Angeles. The school, which is in session in the mornings with the afternoon and evenings given over to entertainment.

One of the interesting features of the gathering attended by Mrs. Milburn was a trip to "Little Tokyo" and visits to the Shinto shrine in the Japanese Buddhist temple and the Japanese community church. Afterwards the party enjoyed a real Japanese dinner.

FOX GRANADA BOOKS NOTED A TRACTATIONS

The Fox Granada theatre in Wilmington announces the following attractions for the coming week: Friday and Saturday Bert Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey will give the greatest entertainment of the season in "The Cuckoos" a roaring marl-gras of cock-eyed comedy with song hits to whistle and hum for months—a host of singers, dancers and musicians in the screen's first great comedy spectacle—Dorothy Lee and June Clyde provide the feminine interest.

The pliant Marion Davies, screen's foremost comedienne, comes Sunday only in "The Florodora Girl," a romance of the gay nineties with Lawrence Grey and Walter Catlett.

Monday and Tuesday the delightful Mac Clark in "Big Time" fame, will be seen in a new role, that of a nagging wife in "The Fall Guy" with Jack Mulhall and Ned Sparks. This is a comedy drama of the lives of every day people and is the picturization of the celebrated New York stage success.

"The Divorcee," an ultra-sophisticated modern drama starring the beautiful Norma Shearer comes to the Fox Granada theatre Wednesday and Thursday. It is a daring expose of the swift pace of the lives of every day people. Chester Morris, Robert Montgomery and Conrad Nagel.

HI SCHOOL HI LIGHTS

By MURIEL BELL
After Commencement Thursday, most of the graduates went to John Young's to have a last good time with each other before going their many ways. Dancing, songs and games were the entertainment for the evening. The guests were Zelma Keyes, Dot Eshom, Oma Beckwith, Muriel Bell, Loma Kizer, Dot Stevenson, Francis Granger, Babe Cummings, Ruby Avion, Lee Herrins, Kenneth Cole, Fred Myers, George Kyle, Stanley Creighton, Ralph Daugherty, Charles Faulkner, Parks Montague, Bill Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Eischen, Mr. and Mrs. Young and John Young.

Zelma Keyes, once a popular student in the class of 1928, was a visitor here last week. Although a visitor here last week, she still will graduate from Huntington Park high school a week ago, she still wishes she had graduated here. There are usually reasons for this sort of thing, and Zelma had a couple of good ones in our class.

Mildred Holland must have thought things were getting dull at school last week so she brought to school one morning a blond-headed girl with bewitching eyes. She gave her name as Grace Smith and she was certainly as popular as any Smith could be. It seems that gentleness really prefer blondes.

After Glenn Tolson had secured a position for the summer, he thought his happy days were over; then he won a month's pass to play on Bob Lessing's golf course. His great grievance now is that while he's working he could be playing golf.

Jean Wheaton and Hazel Briney have such lovely voices they can give the birds good competition. After a long time of concealing their voices, they sang at junior high graduation last week.

Being out of high school appeared great fun to Fred Myers at first, but now he discovered he has to put away his "boyhood" play things and habits. When he was first offered a job he thought he'd rather play, but he soon yielded and is now working at the Smith-Davis gas station.

John Young also felt devoted to his play things, nevertheless he cast them aside for a chance to work. He is now employed at the Union Tool.

As usual, the beach at Hermosa was crowded with Torrance high students on Friday. It's the thing to do the day after school is out, so rain or shine most everyone is there. Some of the lovely ones seen at the beach were Joe Tavara, Parks Montague, Ethel Ward, Moidy Holland, Rita Lister, Grace Smith, Dot Eshom, Zelma Keyes, Fred Myers, George Kyle, John Young, Stanley Creighton, Glenn Tolson, Bill Barnes, Dorothy Myers and some of the "oversers" were Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Bell, and Mr. Young.

Dot Warren, who left for Arizona on Monday, was given a farewell party by her friends on Friday evening at Josephine See's house. Dorothy is going to Arizona to live, so the boys she leaves behind will have to shed their tears in silence.

Whether there is a reason for Dorothy Bartlett's new job, no one knows better than she. She has just taken a position in Long Beach pounding metal. She says it's hard work but is good practice. She has been married for over a year now to Bob, and from all reports there is still peace in the family.

If teachers are really so devoted to their work and hate to leave it for a couple of months in the summer, they can get positions teaching summer school. Such devotion has drawn Mrs. Young and Mr. Wood to Gardena, where Mrs. Young will teach English and Mr. Wood, mathematics.

Once a traveler, always a traveler so Rudy Huber believes. His trip around the world wasn't complete enough for him, so he is leaving tomorrow with his parents for a trip to Yellowstone National Park and Canada. He will be gone over a month.

Library Has Many Visitors Last Week

The Torrance Library was visited last Friday by many guests from all over the United States and received warm praise for its charm and homeliness.

During the recent convention in Los Angeles of the American Library Association, the California County Libraries system was one of the items of interest to visitors.

EASEMENT GRANTED

An easement for the right-of-way for the main trunk line sewer to be constructed by the County Sanitation District No. 5 was granted by the council this week. The outfall will be constructed along 29th street and will give the district a continuous right-of-way across the city.

C.-C.M.O. HOST TO EMPLOYEES AT CAMP HERE

With employees and executives of the company in attendance from as far north as Bakersfield and Ventura, the annual barbecue entertainment and dance of the Chanlor-Carfield Midway Oil Company was an outstanding social event here last week.

It was estimated that more than 1000 persons attended the program and participated in the royal good time provided by the company for its employees from Torrance, Midway, Santa Fe, Olinde, Richfield, and the two northern fields. A number of Torrance citizens and city officials were present to enjoy the mid-summer fete.

Dance on Court
Sherwood McIntyre, superintendent, was in charge of the arrangements and his efforts made the gathering one of the most successful of those held in recent years at the C.-C.M.O. camp, it was reported. Following the barbecue dinner served everyone in attendance, the children competed in field events for prizes donated by the company. Games were quarantined near the scene of the festivities for the entertainment of the children during the afternoon.

In the evening a dance was held on a specially-constructed dance floor laid on one of the tennis courts at the camp. "Vetters" orchestra from Redondo provided the music. The dancing area was decorated with shrubbery, flowers and Japanese lanterns. The party ended about midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Dynes Called from City by Death of Daughter

Because of the sudden death of their daughter, Mrs. Edith Donlon, wife of a wealthy rancher at Oxnard, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dynes were called to the northern city early Tuesday morning. Mr. Dynes is auditor at Torrance for the Columbia Steel Company, a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation and is prominent in Masonic circles here.

Mrs. Donlon was said to be making a splendid recovery following the birth of a son, June 19, when complications set in causing her death. She died at 5 a.m. Tuesday. Besides this baby son, Mrs. Donlon leaves her husband, Bernard, another son, two and one-half years old and her parents.
